

No Judgements, Only Help!

Southern California Alcohol and Drug Programs Inc. (SCADP) provides treatment for substance use disorder (SUD) and related problems.

As one of the larger providers of non-profit services in Southern California, SCADP strives to provide a culturally diverse continuum of care.

We base our success on our dedication to the communities served by providing treatment that includes a variety of wraparound services that address issues of homelessness, personal/financial, domestic violence, depression, mental health/co-occurring disorders, long-term welfare dependence, criminality, traumas, HIV/AIDS, vocational and educational planning, recovery support and community linkages.

SCADP also works in collaboration with our affiliate, Volunteers of America, Central City Recovery Program in Los Angeles. Together we proudly serve men, pregnant and parenting women, persons living with HIV/AIDS, Deaf and Hard of Hearing persons, and the LGBTQ community.
